

New York 5 Sept<sup>r</sup>. 1778

My Lord,

I am honored with the Duplicate N<sup>o</sup>. 14 and Original N<sup>o</sup>. 15 of your Lord<sup>ps</sup> Dispatches, also with the necessary powers for granting letters of Marque, near forty vessels are fitting out here, which when ready to sail, will take letters of Marque.

I arrived last evening from the East End of the Island, with a Detachment of near one Thousand provincials, where I had marched to secure the peaceable behaviour of the dissaffected inhabitants in that quarter, and assist the Commissary in obtaining about one Thousand fat Cattle for the Army. Inclosed is the oath I administered to all the Inhabitants, on the North side of the Island, giving them the alternative either to take the oath or remove with their families and furniture to Connecticut; not one of the whole chose the latter, even the hottest Rebels said, my proposal was generous, and took the oath, which convinces me that the acrimony of opposition is much softened by the late concessions of Government.

Were I at this crisis, to dare to give an opinion on public affairs, it would be, that the British Forces on the Continent (taking the present ground of the War) were never in so good a condition as at present to reconcile America to the dependency of Great Britain; the Army being as it were united and in possession of the four Islands: New York, Long Island, Staten Island and Rhode Island, (the center of the American Coast) from whence it might make such vigorous and hostile deprivations, on the continent as would oblige America to call aloud for the settlement offered by the King's Commiss<sup>rs</sup>; but if large detachments are made from this Army, and the Troops thereby obliged to remain defensive on the Continent, I apprehend, American dependency on Great Britain will be precarious indeed.

M<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Smith the Counsellor is returned to Town, and declares the Rebels are in a bad condition, and impotent in force as in courage, and who only expect success from procrastination. I am hopefull, he may be usefull to the Commiss<sup>rs</sup>. no one is better informed of the politicks of America, and I trust he means to mark his endeavours, to promote a reconciliation on the terms proposed, if liberally encouraged, he could give much weight to Govern<sup>t</sup>. from his abilities.

The late fire and explosion of the Powder Vessel, has done great mischief to this City, upwards of sixty houses, having been destroyed, and many greatly damaged. The perpetrators of the conflagration are still unknown. I am with all possible respect,

My Lord,

Your Lord<sup>ps</sup> most obedient humble servant

W<sup>m</sup> Tryon

Lord George Germain

New York 8 October 1778

My Lord:

Having in a second excursion brought all the Inhabitants on the East end of Long Island as far as Montauk Point, under an oath of peaceable behaviour to His Maj.<sup>ty</sup>'s Govern.<sup>t</sup> (and with good humour,) I acquainted Sir Henry Clinton therewith, and that I now only waited to receive his orders to act under his command. He has accordingly this day, ordered me to join the Corps above King's Bridge, under the orders of Gen.<sup>l</sup> Knyphausen.

I therefore beg leave to repeat my earnest solicitation that the Civil Govern.<sup>t</sup> of this Province may be put into other hands, hoping His Maj.<sup>ty</sup> will grant me a Military one in exchange.

It is my present purpose, before the King's Commiss.<sup>rs</sup> return to England, to resign my Govern.<sup>t</sup> to them, and to endeavour to obtain S<sup>r</sup> Henry Clinton's leave to go to England.

The Manifesto and proclamation herewith transmitted is greatly approved by the Inhabitants within the King's Lines and will I conceive work powerfully without the lines towards a reconciliation.

I am with all possible respect &c.

W<sup>m</sup> Tryon

Lord George Germain
