Long Island Genealogy is a completely FREE online resource. Just like everything else today it is getting harder and harder to maintain our web presence.

There are substantial costs involved with providing a site of this size and popularity.

If you use our services please consider helping us continue making it available. All help is appreciated!

Everyday, over 50,000 people search our databases!

We are doing everything possible to keep the site completely FREE from annoying advertisements and popups.

EXPLANATION.

Every cemetery in these collections is given a number, which is a great aid in many respects.

Every tomb-stone and separate name is also given a number, thus enabling any one, at once, to see how many bodies are buried in each cemetery, as shown by the names.

The oldest and most recent stones are listed at the end of each large cemetery, so as to determine the dates between which the cemetery was surely used.

An effort is made to retain all plots intact, and to list all monuments, thereby preserving as far as is possible, every fact of relationship. Hence the need of cross - references, which are usually not numbered.

An attempt is made to give, as NOTES, the maiden names of wives and mothers. It must be understood that the names and dates in all such NOTES, do not appear on the stones. A great many more such notes could be added by the compiler.

A running title, on the top of each page, is carried all through this volume, thus obviating the necessity of continually referring to the table of contents on page two.

Bible records are added where they can be obtained. Marriages from Church records are also added from the large collection in the possession of the compiler. Hence this cemetery record is quite largely edited.

The index of Persons is now made by the first names. An index of Places is always added.

A space is left, especially, for filling in the middle names where only the initial is known: the author has given the full names where possible: all such additions will be gladly noted by the compiler, for a future edition of this, if he is notified of all such possible additions.

The author will be glad to get other cemetery records, to include in this and his other many series, no matter where the cemetery is located, nor how recent it has been used, nor to what denomination the CEMETERY belongs. See the other numerous type-written records by the compiler of this book.
