

THE COREY FAMILY OF SOUTHAMPTON, AND SOUTHOLD, LONG ISLAND, N. Y.

WRITTEN ALSO CORE, CORY, CORRY, CORRIE, ETC.

BY LUCY D. AKERLY, OF NEWBURGH, N. Y.

THE Corey family are stated to have been of Pict or Scandanavian origin, deriving their name from "Cori," a Roman fort at Annandale, in the Shire of Dumfries, Scotland.

We also find Karre in Holingshed's copy of the Roll of Battel Abbey, in the reign of William the Conqueror, of England.*

This indicates that the family is an ancient one, whatever its origin.

The word corrie, or correi, is Gaelic, meaning a bowl-shaped hollow on a hill side, in which game usually lies.

Mr. E. F. Corey, a decendant of William Corey, of Portsmouth, R. I., has concluded after years of research, "That all the Coreys in America sprang from the same source, probably not from one man, but from several brothers, or relatives, who reached this country at, or near Boston, from which place they, or their descendants, migrated through Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut, crossing from the latter state to Long Island."

The surname Corrie, Corry and Cory, with mention of its heraldic insignia, is found in Burke's Peerage, his Landed Gentry and Commoners, as well as in his Encyclopaedia of Heraldry.

The accompanying illustration is the coat-armor granted to the Corey family of London in 1612. "Sable, on a chevron between three griffin's heads erased or, as many estoiles gules. Crest—out of a ducal coronet a griffin's head between two wings or, each wing charged with three estoiles in pale, gules." The same arms were borne by the Coreys of Braemerton, Norfolk County, England. The original of this illustration is an old print once owned by Mr. Corrie, of Sag Harbor, L. I., who brought a pitcher from London in 1799 engraved with the family arms.

As John Corey of Long Island is said to have been a Quaker, it is unlikely that he used coat-armor, even if entitled to it.

1. JOHN COREY, of Southampton and Southold, N. Y., is first mentioned at Southampton on the 7 March, 1644, as a Whale Commissioner for his district. He received a grant of land the following day.†

* Lower's English Surnames.

† Southampton Town Records, I., 32, 33.

It is uncertain in what part of the British Isles his immediate forefathers dwelt, nor is there, apparently any proof of the tradition that he was a son of Giles Corey, who was at Salem, Mass., in 1649, when he, Giles, was put to death for witchcraft in September, 1692, being then nearly 77 years of age.*

From a deed dated the 11 Oct., 1660, (Southold Town Record, I., 195), it would seem that John Jr., one of the sons of the first John Corey, was then of age, and so born as early as 1639. Assuming that John, the father, was at least from 22 to 25 years older than his son, we find that John Corey, Sr., and Giles Corey were very nearly the same age.

On the 8 Oct., 1649, John Corey was a resident of the Town of Southold, as he and Ann Corey witness a deed there on that date.

In 1659 he refused to take the oath of allegiance at New Haven, but did so in May, 1660. "Goodman" Corey was made Freeman of Connecticut, in 1662.†

John Corey owned at different times several home lots in Southold Town. Moore's Indexes state that he was objected to by some of his neighbors as a Quaker, which might account for his frequent change of residence. William Salmon gave him land at Hashamomack "for his neighborhood," where he lived for a time deserting the same after Salmon's death, but returning to Hashamomack where he died after the 6 July, 1680. It is an error to suppose that he died as late as 1697, as his estate was inventoried on the 7 Mch., 1686, it amounted to £43-3-6. His will names sons John, Jacob, Abram, Isaac, and das. Sarah, Hannah and Abigail. (Sessions Book).

He m. Ann ———, possibly about 1638, before coming to Long Island. It is probable that she was the mother of all his children, and that none of them save John Jr., were of age in 1660.‡

Margaret Corey, probably John's 2nd wife, is mentioned in Howell's History of Southampton. According to Moore's Indexes, her family consisted in 1686, of one male and two females. Children of the first John Corey, order unknown.

2. i. JOHN,² of Huntington, L. I. (See above).
3. ii. ABRAHAM, who d. 10 Sept., 1702.
4. iii. ISAAC, who d. 8 Mch., 1702.
5. iv. JACOB, who d. 15 Feb., 1705-6.
- v. SARAH, who m. Nathaniel, son of Richard Williams, of Huntington.
- vi. JOHANAH, or Hannah, who m. Richard, son of Thomas Brush, of Huntington. Hannah, da. of Hannah, is named in the will of John Cory, before mentioned. Johanah Brush witnessed a deed on 13 Jan., 1699. (Huntington Town Records, II., 238).

The Town Records, also give, I., p. 345, the following children for Richard Brush, but omit their mother's name:

1. "Esther" Brush, b. 2 April, 1670.

2. Richard Brush, b. 23 Sept., 1673.
3. Thomas Brush, b. 13 Jan., 1675-6.
4. Mary Brush, b. 31 March, 1677-8.
5. Robert Brush, b. 30 June, 1685.
6. Benjamin Brush, b. 20 Oct., 1682.*

vii. ABIGAIL, who married John Sammis, Samons or Samways, about 1672. "John is believed to have come to Huntington among the earliest settlers, by way of Southold." Both he and Nathaniel Williams were, in 1672, part owners of number one of the ten farms, besides holding other property in Huntington.

John Sammis m. 2nd, the widow of John Corey, nee Mary Cornish. (See below).

The will of John Sammis, dated 28 Nov., 1693, proved 3 Jan., 1693-4, names his wife Mary, his daughter-in-law, Martha Corey (i. e., step-daughter), his children John, Silas, Deborah, David, Isaac, Jeremiah and Hannah. (Jeremiah and Hannah were probably children of Mary Cornish). John Sammis also mentions his brothers-in-law Abraham, and and Isaac, Corey; Richard Brush and Nathaniel Williams. (Pelletreau's Early L. I. Wills).

The Sammis, Williams and Brush families are still flourishing at Huntington, but the surname Corey is no longer found there. Issue of John and Abigail (Corey) Sammis:

1. "John" Sammis, b. 13 Sept., 1673, at Huntington.
 2. Silas Sammis, b. 2 Nov., 1676.
 3. Deborah Sammis, b. 13 Nov., 1678.
 4. David Sammis, b. 4 Oct., 1681.
 5. Isaac Sammis, b. 14 Nov., 1683-4.†
2. JOHN COREY, of Huntington, son of John Corey, of Southold, from which place the former went to Huntington, perhaps as early as 1659.

He bought a home lot there, on 7 July, 1663, and was granted land in 1668, 1681 and 1682. He was, at one time, one of the owners of number nine of the ten farms, and afterwards of number ten.

He is said to have been a Quaker, and was a man of considerable importance at Huntington, being Recorder, Town Clerk, Arbitrator, etc.

The inventory of his estate amounting to £82 and 10 shillings was dated 25 Jan., 1685-6. (See Huntington Town Records, and the Suffolk County History).

John Corey married at Huntington, on 15 Dec., 1667, Mary Cornish, who m. 2d, John Sammis (see above); she survived both of her husbands, and is mentioned on 9 April, 1696, by her son John Corey, as then living.

* Copied verbatim. Was Benjamin older than Robert?
 † Huntington Town Records, I., 35.

A Joseph Corey is mentioned in Thompson's History of Long Island, as a resident of Huntington about 1666. No such man being found in the early Records of the Town, Joseph may safely be considered as a misprint for John.

Issue of John and Mary (Cornish) Corey, from the Town Records of Huntington, I., 376:

- i. MARY,* b. 20 Oct., 1668, she doubtless married Samuel Smith, on 14 Feb., 1688-9, and had issue:
Samuel⁴ Smith, b. 30 Jan., 1689-90.
- ii. ABIGAIL, b. 13 Nov., 1670.
- iii. ELIZABETH, b. 9 Jan., 1672.
- iv. JOHN, b. 3 Feb., 1674. He was at Huntington as late as 1696. In 1700 he was of Elizabethtown, N. J., where he died in Dec., 1723, his wife, Patience, died in 1722.*
- v. MARTHA, b. 17 Feb., 1677. John Sammis in his will, quoted above, calls her his "daughter-in-law Martha Corey," on 28 Nov., 1693.
- vi. ELNATHAN, b. 1 June, 1679.
- vii. THOMAS, b. 21 Sept., 1681. He settled in Stamford, Conn., about 1720.†
- viii. ABRAHAM, b. 28 Oct., 1683, living at Huntington, 9 April, 1696.

3. ABRAHAM⁴ COREY (John¹), of Southold, b. perhaps about 1641. He was a landholder in the Town of Southold, and Savage says that he was Freeman of Connecticut in 1662, and married in the same year. "Goodman" Corey, Freeman of Connecticut in 1662 was much more likely to have been John Corey, Sr., than his son, Abraham; while 1662 seems too early for the marriage date of Margaret Christophers, as she was apparently not a resident of New London till 1665.

On the 28 June, 1680, Abraham acquits his father John Corey, of all debts; Abraham was Constable in 1681, was rated on £76 in 1683, and in 1686 had four males and four females in his family.

He married Margaret, da. of Jeffrey Christophers of New London, Conn. The latter gave his house in New London to his da. Margaret Corey on the 8 July, 1700, he being at the time a resident of Southold.‡

Margaret Corey bought land 22 Aug., 1705. (See Southold Town Records, I., 188, 167; II., 23, 115).

Abraham Corey's will (Pelletreau's Early Long Island Wills, p. 256), dated 19 May, 1701-2, proved the 14 Oct., the same year, names his wife, Margaret, his "nephew Patience Mayhew" (evidently a member of his household, and daughter of John Mayhew), and the children below. The Census of 1698 omits Eliza-

† Mss. Records of Horace Ruess.

‡ Jeffrey, and his brother Christopher, Christophers, were mariners engaged in the exchange trade with Barbadoes. They settled in New London about 1665.

Jeffrey was born about 1621, at "Choston Ferris," probably Cherston Ferrera, near Dartmouth, Devonshire, England. His wife's name is not known. His children were probably not natives of this country. His son, Jeffrey, Jr., died 17 May, 1690. His sisters were Margaret Corey; Joanna, wife of John Mayhew, of New London, and the wife of a Mr. Parker, or Packer, of Southold." (Savage's Genealogical Dictionary, and Caulkin's History of New London).

both, she having been married before that date. The order of the children is not known; they were:

6. i. ABRAHAM, called eldest son in his father's will.
- ii. JOHN, called 2nd son in his father's will. He may have died on 2 May, 1717, or he may have married Dorothy Hobart, and have died in 1754. (See John, the supposed son of Jacob Corey).
- iii. ELIZABETH, doubtless born in 1681, d. 11 April, 1751, in her 71st year. She married 1st, Colonel Samuel^s Hutchinson (Matthias^s), who d. 9 Jan., 1737, in his 65th year. Elizabeth married 2nd, Mr. John^s Budd (John^s, Lieut. John^s, Lieut. John^s), b. in 1686-7, d. 20 Feb., 1752-3. She was his second wife. Issue by 1st husband:
 1. Samuel^s Hutchinson. See Census of 1698.
 2. Elijah Hutchinson, called "grandson" in the will of Abraham Corey, before mentioned.*
 3. Benjamin Hutchinson (perhaps).
- iv. MARY, her surname was Corey in 1698. In May, 1702, she was the wife of William Bradley, he being her 2nd husband.
- v. DOROTHY, unmarried in May, 1702.

4. ISAAC^s COREY (John^s), of Southampton and Hashamomack, d. 8 Mch., 1702. His father, John Corey, Sr., gave him a deed of most of his possessions, on 6 July, 1680. (Southold Town Records, I., 115.)

Isaac was rated at Southampton in 1683, on £148, 3 shillings, and 4d. In 1686, as an inhabitant of that Town, he drew lot No. 50 of the Acobogue meadows, in connection with Henry Ludlam. He afterwards removed to the Town of Southold, where he owned over a hundred acres in 1695.

Letters of Administration on his estate were issued to his widow, Sarah, on 21 May, 1702. (Pelletreau's Early Long Island Wills.)

Sarah's maiden name was probably Ludlam, or Linde, but could hardly have been Conkling as some suppose. Her marriage to Isaac Corey in 1682, is recorded in the Mss. Southold Town Records. The original entry began "Ludle," and has apparently been rewritten "Lindley," at some later time.

It does not appear that Lindley was a Long Island name at that date, while the fact that Isaac Corey was appointed Administrator of the estate of Anthony Ludlam, with the widow Sarah Ludlam, and Anthony, Jr., makes it probable that Isaac Corey's wife, Sarah, was a daughter of Anthony and Sarah Ludlam.*

The following quaint receipt, might however, point to some connection with New London.

"Southold, July y^e 14:98.

Then Reseved of Isaac Corey the sum of twellfe pound curant mony of New England, which was a legasi left to them by their father, Daniel Comstock leat of New London, I say reseved by us:

Thomas Halliounck.
Samuel Youngs.

Witnesses Tho: Longworth.
Elizabeth Grover."†

Issue of Isaac and Sarah (Ludlam?) Corey:

- i. ISAAC, JR.,⁹ b. 1 Jan., 1683-4, d. 23 Feb., 1698-9, old style.
- ii. SARAH, b. 23 Oct., 1685, m. 30 May, 1704, Thomas Reed, of Southampton, schoolmaster. Issue: all natives of Southampton:
 1. Sarah⁴ Reed, b. 1 Aug., 1706.
 2. Ashur Reed, b. 18 Sept., 1711.
 3. Thomas Reed, b. 23 Apl., 1714.
 4. John Reed, b. 25 April, 1717.
 5. Sybil Reed, b. 24 Jan., 1719-20.
 6. Ame Reed, b. 8 Feb., 1722-3. She m. and had a son, Epenetus (surname not known to me) b. 3 Feb., 1746-7.
 7. David Reed, b. 10 Aug., 1725.‡
- iii. PHOEBE, named in the Census of 1698, but not in Liber E. of the Mss. Southold Records, with Isaac's other issue.
7. iv. DAVID, b. 16 Apl., 1690, d. 30 Oct., 1758.
- v. DEBORAH, b. 1 Feb., 1693, m. doubtless on 7 Sept., 1715, Nathan Youngs (Zerubbabel?). Issue; from Liber E. Mss. Southold Town Records:
 1. Deborah⁴ Youngs, b. 22 Apl., 1716, d. 26 Nov., 1787.
 2. Mary Youngs, b. 10 Nov, 1719.

3. Phoebe Youngs, b. 10 July, 1721.

4. Silas Youngs, b. 5 Jan., 1722-23.

5. Bethia Youngs, b. 24 Aug., 1726.

- vi. JONATHAN, b. 4 Sept., 1697. "His brother David, who had inherited, most, if not all, of his father's real estate, felt it a pleasure, if not a duty, to bestow lands on his kindred." He gave Jonathan 48 acres of land, on 20 Sept., 1718-19. Jonathan was living at Southold, on 8 Oct., 1747; he m. Mary, probably da. of Jacob Conkling, 9 Jan., 1719-20. She d. (perhaps), 4 Sept., 1721. Jonathan's son, Isaac, d. in 1739, and another son d. 24 Aug., 1731, æ. 1 year. Jonathan may have had a son Jonathan, who went to Orange Co., N. Y., as a marriage between Jonathan Kore of Goshen, and Rebecca, widow of John Conkling, is recorded at East Hampton, L. I., on 14 May, 1745.

The will of a Jonathan Corey, of Orange Co., dated 10 Dec., 1768, proved 11 Feb., 1770, mentions his wife, Patience; children: Elnathan, and Jonathan Corey; Mary Smith, Lois More, and Temperance Shepherd; grandsons: Jonathan, son of Abraham Shepherd, and John, son of Elnathan Corey.*

5. JACOB' COREY (John'), of Southold, d. 15 Feb., 1706. A list of Jacob's lands will be found in the Town Records. He was Overseer, and Patentee of Southold, in 1676. He was worth £92 in 1683, while three years later his household was composed of two males and five females.

Griffin in his Journal names Jacob Corey in his list of the thirteen earliest settlers of Southold. This oft-quoted list is not supported by any documentary evidence whatsoever, as has been ably shown by the late Mr. J. Wickham Case, and also by Dr. Ephr Whitaker, in his History of Southold. The will of John Corey first, mentioned above, is proof that Jacob was of the second Corey generation.

He married, as early as 1672, Ann (Tuthill?), who died on the 11 April, 1739. Issue, named in the order given in the Census of 1698:

- i. JACOB, JR.,² b. about 1673, he died suddenly in 1745, æ. 72. His wife probably d. 26 Feb., 1731. The deaths of two of his children are given in the Salmon Record. "Jacob Corey's son Jacob,⁴ d. 5 May, 1717," "Jacob Corey's son Jacob, d. 31 May, 1724."
- ii. ANN, JR., b. doubtless 8 Feb., 1678, d. 4 Aug., 1748, m. prob. about 1706, Nathaniel Dominy, b. 14 July, 1687, d. 5 May, 1768. Their children were:
 1. Mary⁴ Dominy, b. in 1707.
 2. Anne Dominy.
 3. Phoebe Dominy, bapt. 13 March, 1712.

* Fernow's Calendar of Albany Wills, and Lib. 27, p. 434, N. Y. Wills.

4. Nathaniel Dominy, b. 14 Dec. 1714, married Elizabeth Eyres, 30 Dec., 1736, d. 30 Mch., 1778.
5. John Dominy, bapt. 24 June, 1716.
6. Lydia Dominy, bapt., 7 June, 1719.*

iii. JEHODA.

iv. ABIGAIL, a witness in Southold, 28 April, 1708.

- v. JOHN, prob. the John Corey, b. about Jan., 1686, d. 13 July, 1754, who m. 24 Feb., 1707, Dorothy Hobart. His will, dated 26 Dec., 1753, proved 24 Aug., 1754 (Liber 19, p. 88, N. Y. City Wills), names his wife Dorothy, children: Abijah, John, Elisabeth Lawes, Dorothea Dickinson; grandchildren: Bradick Corey, and Mary Wiggins. The latter was the only child of John Corey's da. Mary, who m. in 1748, John Wiggins, Jr., she d. 3 July, 1749, æ. 21 yrs. and 7 mths. Her husband's 2^d wife was Widow Mary Brown, da. of Ensign John, and Mary (Corey) King.

Dorothy, da. of John Corey, d. 3 June, 1716. It is supposed in Moore's Indexes, and Griffin's Journal, that Jacob had a son Abraham. There seems to be no evidence of his existence. (See ante, John's son of Abraham's Corey.)

6. ABRAHAM^s COREY (Abraham^s, John^s), of Southold, b. by computation about 1680, m. prob. in 1706, Mary, da. of John Paine of Southold. She d. 21 Dec., 1717.†

(An Abraham Corey m. on the 12 Oct., 1731, Alice, prob. da. of John Bradick of Southold.)

Issue of Abraham and Mary (Payne) Corey:

- i. MARY^s (doubtless) b. 11 Jan., 1707, m. 25 June, 1724, Ensign John^s King (Samuel^s, Samuel^s, William^s), of Southold, b. 15 July, 1699, d. 28 June, 1753. Issue:

1. Mary^s King, b. 27 Jan., 1726, m. (2nd?), May, 1746, Dr. Peter Brown, b. 11 Sept., 1719, d. 4 June, 1747. On 6 March, 1754, she became the 2nd wife of John Wiggins, Jr. (See above.)‡

2. John King, b. 18 Dec., 1727, d. 14 July, 1792, m. on 13 March, 1754, Abigail Brown; m. 2nd, on 10 March, 1770, Phoebe Youngs.

† Thomas^s son of Thos. and Katherine (Harsant) Payne, came to Salem, Mass., from Wrentham, Suffolk, Eng., in 1657, with his wife Elizabeth and six children. Thos.^s was b. in England, 11 Dec., 1586; his will dated 103d. mo., 1638, was proved in the Salem Quarterly Court, —5mo., 1644. The inventories of both Elizabeth, his wife, and their son Peter, were dated Southold, L. I., 15 Sept., 1658. Peter's widow Mary was the 2d wife of Jeremiah Vall.

‡ From the Southold Land Records, and the discovery of the unrecorded will of John Payne, it would appear that he was son of Peter, aforesaid, and not of Peter's brother John, as formerly supposed.

The said will, dated Southold, 3 Feb., 1705-7, proved 3 Oct., 1707, mentions "Wife Jemima, da. Mary Corye and Martha Case, sons Alsop, John, and Peter Paine, sons-in-law Abraham Corye, and Henry Case, Jr."

Jemima, da. of Jos. and Elizabeth (Preston) Alsop, gr.-da. of Wm. and Mary (Saybrook) Preston, was b. in New Haven, 10 Feb., 1670, and m. to John Payne, 2 Mch., 1697-2.

It is probable, (but not proven,) that Mary Corye and Martha Case were da. of John's 1st wife, Mary, b. 25 May, 1661, d. 25 Sept., 1690, and buried at Southold.

7. DAVID^o COREY (Isaac^o, John^o), of Hashamomack, b. 16 April, 1690, d. 30 Oct., 1758. He was Sheriff of Suffolk Co. for several years. He m. 1st, Mary Brush, who died 24 Dec., 1720-21, in her 30 year. His 2nd wife, Ruth Griffin, m. 22 Feb., 1722, d. 9 Feb., 1740. † Abraham Corey, Sr., who died in 1702, could not have been, as Savage asserts, the father of Margaret Lynde, néo Corey. Her birth date was entered in an ancient King Mas. by Ensign John King, in his own family record. From this fact, taken in connection with the names Margaret and Abraham, borne by two of Ensign King's children, Mary (Corey) King, and Margaret (Corey) Lynde, have been placed as children of Abraham Corey, Jr.
