MARRIAGES BY REV. MARMADUKE EARLE

REV. MARMADUKE EARLE

Rev. Marmaduke Earle, son of Morris and Anna (de la Montanye) Earle, was born in New York City, March 21, 1769, and died at Oyster Bay, Long Island, July 13, 1856. His ordination as a Baptist minister took place February 7, 1793, at the First Baptist Church in New York City. He had been serving the Baptist Church at Stamford, Connecticut, since June, 1791; and he continued there as pastor until late 1801.

Mr. Earle entered into the pastorate of the Oyster Bay Baptist Church, at Oyster Bay, Long Island, in April, 1802. He remained with that church until his death in 1856, excepting for a brief period in 1810-1811, when he returned to Stamford and also appears to have spent a short time in New York City. *

His Marriage Register

Rev. Marmaduke Earle performed 741 marriages, during a period of sixty-three years. He recorded them on eleven pages of a small note book, 6 1/8x4 inches in size, and on sixteen pages of a journal, size 15 5/8x6 inches. These pages have been detached from their original bindings and have been sewn together between covers made of card-board from a box.

This Marriage Register is now in the possession of Rev. Charles S. Wightman, who married a granddaughter of Rev. Marmaduke Earle. Rev. Mr. Wightman, now in the 90th year of his age, is Pastor Emeritus of the Oyster Bay Baptist Church, after an active pastorate of over a half-century there. It is to him that I am indebted for the opportunity and privilege of copying this old Marriage Register.

C O N T E N T S

PART I.-

A copy of the Marriage Register of Rev. Marmaduke Earle, with the records in chronological order, just as written by him. His entries, from 1804, include the marriage fees that he received. He noted these, until July, 1811, at the right of his entries, but, after that date, he uniformly recorded them in front of the marriage records. These fees ranged all the way from 37½¢ to $20.00. He married many colored couples, as his entries indicate.

PART II.-

A Record of Marriages, from the Earle Marriage Register, in alphabetical order of the male and female names. So arranged for the convenience of genealogical searchers.
