FOREWORD

It is a great satisfaction to be able now to publish in book form, as Volume III of my Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, the complete genealogical data found in all records and minutes (known to be in existence) of all of the Friends' Meetings ever organized in New York City and on Long Island, these records dating from the time of the first arrival of Friends at New Amsterdam (called New York from 1664) in 1657.

While the earliest marriage actually recorded in these meetings was in 1663, on Long Island, many clues to marriages of much earlier dates and consummated in Europe will be found in this book. We have been very fortunate in being able to quote marriages, births, deaths, etc., from many Family Bibles of early Long Island Friends, which give us much information concerning these families prior to the first records found of the meetings, and even reaching back into Europe in some cases. We have quoted extensively, also, from a collection of data called "Sixty Long Island Families", compiled by George Cocks, though not published, for which privilege I extend my thanks. The compiler has also "filled in" copious data from Burial Registers and Tombstone inscriptions from several Burial Grounds, Quaker and Non-Quaker, this important data being graciously furnished by the Long Island Historical Association, Brooklyn, N. Y., and copied out for us (without charge of any kind) by Miss Eda Huntington, Librarian.

He has been aided also, in making identifications of individuals, by references to the published Family Genealogies of:-Cocks, Cox, Frost, Underhill, Seaman, Jones, and the Oyster Bay "Town" records 1653-1878.

Although we name only the four Monthly Meetings:-New York, Westbury, Jericho and Flushing, the memberships of these four Monthly Meetings covered a wide territory and were members of established Meetings for Worship at many places, including:-New York, Purchase, Westchester, Flushing, Oyster Bay, Westbury, Hempstead, Gravesend, Maspeth Kills, Jericho, Cow Neck, Rockaway, Huntington, Secatogue, Half Hollow Hills, Jerusalem, Bethpage, Matinecock, Brooklyn, Manhattanville, Seamans and possibly others, the records of which were kept by the above named four Monthly Meetings.

It is to be remembered that a Monthly Meeting is a business meeting, its attendants consisting of delegates from several Meetings for Worship and Preparative Meetings, all belonging to the Monthly Meeting. Thus all Friends living in New York City and on Long Island belonged to and were controlled by one or another of the four named Monthly Meetings.

For the history and development of the Society of Friends in New York City and on Long Island, I refer readers to the Historical Narrative (found on another page) taken from the writings of John Cox, Jr., the eminent Quaker historian whose tireless work covering some thousands of hours of intensive labor in research and compiling has made this book possible.

Unusual importance is attached to this book in that every item in the entire volume was extracted from original books of Minutes and Records and compiled into alphabetical order by Mr. John Cox, Jr., who has long been known as custodian of all Quaker records stored in the fire-proof vaults of the New York Yearly Meeting of Friends, and as the author of a splendid book entitled "Quakerism in the City of New York, 1657-1930", Printed by Quinn & Boden Company, Rahway, N. J., 1930.

On account of the danger of hastening the complete loss of their records from careless handling, the vault committee of the New York Yearly Meeting has for years allowed no one excepting John Cox Jr., to search the 1700 precious, frail books, for ancestral data. Now, in the realization that these wonderful records can be made accessible to all who may be interested, through being published in my Encyclopedia, the vault committee has authorized John Cox Jr., to make complete compilations for me, thus not only removing any need for allowing the books to be examined for genealogical data, but also making sure that the precious data shall forever be preserved.

Needless to say, I am especially and profoundly grateful to Mr. Cox for compiling the material for this book which will forever live as a memorial to his care and concern for the permanent preservation of the records of New York and Long Island Meetings.

I am especially happy thus to be able to make these records available to the millions of descendants of these early settlers of New York and Long Island who braved the dangers of ocean travel in coming to America from England, Holland, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Germany and France in small sail-boats which took from two to four months to make the voyage. Descendants may well feel proud of such ancestors.

I wish again to express my appreciation of the aid given to this work by many men and women in high places in American History and Genealogy. No friends have been lost, and many new names have been added to the long list of individuals who have been constantly thinking and working for the success of this great venture, without which we could not have progressed thus far on the road to completion. Many librarians and individuals have written asking when they might subscribe for Volume III. The first actual subscription to this book was received last June from one of our most enthusiastic friends, Mr. J. Prescott Beach, President of the New Jersey Society of Sons of the American Revolution, who, on receipt of a friendly letter from me saying that I expected to publish Volume III some time the coming Fall, immediately sent me his check for two copies (one for himself and one for his wife), without even waiting for my formal announcement. His letter seemed a happy omen for the future.

I want to mention some names not mentioned heretofore, of prominent men and women who have more recently come to our support and whose efforts in our behalf are deeply appreciated: Dr. Gilbert H. Doane, Director of the University of Wisconsin Libraries, Madison, Wis., one of the most learned genealogist-historians in America, and author of a fine book:—"Searching For Your Ancestors."; Mrs. Alberta M. Trethewey, Litt. D., a prominent genealogist of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, of Boston; Dr. Charles C. Crittenden, Editor of the Quarterly Review of the North Carolina Historical Commission, of Raleigh; Mr. Henry James Young, Researcher for the Historical Society of York Co., York, Pa.; Dr. Wm. I. Utterback, Head of the Zoology Department of Marshall College, Huntington, West Virginia, who is himself author and publisher of a valuable book on the Genealogy of the Utterback and allied families; Dr. Alexander C. Flick, Historian of the New York State Historical Association, Albany; Mr. Meredith B. Colket, Jr., Assistant Editor of the American Genealogist, New Haven, Conn.; Miss Pearl Idol, Genealogist for the Hunt Family of North Carolina, High Point; Miss Jessica Ferguson, Genealogist of the Pennsylvania State Library and Historical Museum, Harrisburg; Mrs. Bertha Baker, Librarian of the Historical and Fine Arts Department of the State of Iowa, Des Moines; Mr. Mahlon H. Janney, Registrar of the District of Columbia Society of Colonial Wars, Washington, D. C.; Mr. William W. Badgley, Registrar of the District of Columbia Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, Washington, D.C.; Mrs. Morgan Bunting, Custodian of Darby Friends Meeting, Darby, Pa.; Miss Rebecca Smedley, Custodian of Chester Friends Meeting, Media, Pa.; Miss Harriett P. Marine, Custodian of the Hicksite Yearly Meeting Vaults, Baltimore, Md.; Miss Bertha E. King, Custodian of the Orthodox Yearly Meeting Vaults, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. H. D. Brown, Jr. (known to genealogy as Douglas Summers Brown), Genealogist of Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Matilda W. Evans, Genealogist, West Chester, Pa.; and many others whose names will be mentioned in a later volume, all of whom deserve high credit from me.

But I cannot close this Foreword without again speaking of the wonderful assistance given me by Thomas W. Marshall, who has from the beginning superintended all work in compiling of data and who carefully edits every item published, working untiringly without any kind of remuneration excepting the satisfaction of doing a wonderful work for humanity; and of Dr. Walter C. Woodward, who has from the beginning directed personally the entire work of distribution and advertising for my entire project, also without remuneration other than the satisfaction of aiding in the creation of this greatest genealogical work of all times. Without the active aid of these two men, I could not have "carried on" thus far.

EDITOR'S NOTE

All the records for this volume were compiled from the originals by John Cox, Jr. In preparing them for publication his arrangement has been generally followed, with only a few changes. This plan of arrangement differs from that used in volumes I and II in that the items from birth and death records and those from minutes, marriage registers, etc., are combined together, instead of being compiled separately, as has previously been done. It is believed that the new arrangement will be found to be a convenient and satisfactory one.

It is desired to call attention to one specific change made in preparing John Cox's material for the printer. In his previously published books, and in his compilation of material for this volume, Mr. Cox followed the old custom of writing dates - number of day first, followed by the month and year - for all dates prior to the adoption of the present or "New Style" Calendar in 1752. Thus: 24/10 Mo (Dec) 1725,-the name of the month being inserted in parenthesis to avoid the confusion that frequently arises from the fact that March was the first month under the "Old Style" Calendar. For dates subsequent to 1752, Mr. Cox has used the usual present day form in which the number of the month is written first, followed by the day and year. Thus: 7 Mo. 27, 1848. In order to have the same order for all dates and to conform to the plan used in volumes I and II, the Editor has transposed the "Old Style" dates to the same order as the later ones. Thus: 10 Mo (Dec) 24, 1725.

For the information of readers who may not be fully informed regarding the 1752 change in the calendar, the account given in the Introduction to volume II is repeated here.

The "Old Style" calendar was superseded in 1752 by the Gregorian (New Style) calendar. By act of Parliament passed in 1750 the day following 2 September, 1752, was called 14 September. At the same time, the beginning of the legal year was changed from the 25th of March to the 1st of January. Many other European countries had adopted the Gregorian calendar, with the year beginning 1 January, as early as 1700. Because of the resulting confusion, it had become the custom in England and her colonies to give two dates for the period intervening between 1 January and 25 March, as 13 January 1709/10. The day following 24 March 1709/10 was 25 March 1710. The manner of dating in use among Friends, in which months were designated by numbers instead of by names, added to the confusion. January was the 11th month, February was the 12th, and all of March was called the first month although the new year did not begin until the 25th day of the month. Thus, the last day of 12th month was followed by the first day of first month of the same year, and the 24th day of first month was followed by the 25th day of first month of the succeeding year. * * * * * It should be borne in mind that dates of births were often recorded many years after the events; that dates of births occurring before 1752 but recorded afterward were often translated into "New Style" before recording. Sometimes the letters NS or OS indicate whether this translation was or was not made; more often, perhaps, the designation has been omitted. Therefore, it will often be impossible to say definitely that a given date is according to the "Old Style" or the "New Style".

HISTORICAL NARRATIVE

(This Narrative is taken almost verbatim from the book "Quakerism in New York City" and other writings of John Cox, Jr.)

The genesis of Quakerism in this Province (New Netherland, now New York State) was the arrival of the ship "Woodhouse" at Nieuw Amsterdam, on the 1st day of the Sixth Month, called August, 1657.

A band of earnest Quakers, intent upon getting to New England, could get no passage from the mother country (England) owing to the high fines to which Captains of vessels were subject who carried Quakers. Robert Fowler (of Bridlington), himself a ministering Friend, having a small vessel (the Woodhouse) nearly finished for the coastwise trade, says in his True Relation, "This vessel was appointed for this service from the beginning, as I have often had it manifested to me; that it was said within me several times, 'Thou hast her not for nothing'; and also New England presented itself before me." So, Robert offered his little coasting vessel to his fellow-religionists. How they ever crossed the stormy Atlantic can never be told more graphically than in the brief account written by Robert Fowler himself and printed in Bowden's History of Friends, vol. 1, p. 65. The little boat was too small for ocean travel, but Fowler in his log states: "We saw the Lord leading our vessel as it were a man leading a horse by the hand." They were carried too far south for the Massachusetts colonies and so landed at New Amsterdam (New York), with its barely 1000 inhabitants of Dutch settlers governed by their last and strongest Director-General, Stuyvesant.

The voyage of the Woodhouse took two whole months; but instead of reaching Boston as intended, they reached New Amsterdam, entering through the Sound and Hell Gate. They anchored their little vessel at this little town on Saturday, the first day of the Sixth Month (August) 1657. The vessel looked harmless, but its cargo was destined to greatly disturb the quiet Dutch town and its energetic Governor. There were eleven preachers on the ship, every one an active center of contagion. Boston had deported six of these to London the year before, so, this was their second voyage. They were: Christopher Holder, John Copeland, William Brend, Sarah Gibbons, Mary Weatherhead and Dorothy Waugh. The five who were making their first voyage were: William Robinson, Humphrey Norton, Richard Doudney, Robert Hodgson and Mary Clark. Of these, Robert Hodgson, Richard Doudney, Sarah Gibbons, Mary Weatherhead and Dorothy Waugh landed at New Amsterdam, the rest remaining on the ship and sailing soon for Newport, Rhode Island. The next day, August 1st, while the ship was at anchor, which was the Sabbath, Robert Fowler and Robert Hodgson made a visit to Director-General Stuyvesant. "He was moderate," remarks Fowler, "both in words and actions." On Monday, Mary Weatherhead and Dorothy Waugh went into the streets and publicly exhorted the people. It is not easy for us to appreciate the scandalized feelings of the citizens. Their women scolded each other over the garden fence (or possibly their husbands over the breakfast table) but in the street they were silent. These two women were arrested, put in chains and thrown into separate noisome dungeons, where they were kept for eight days, when they were led out to a boat with their hands tied behind them, and shipped to Rhode Island, which the Dutch considered the Latrina of New England, on account of its tolerance for religious liberty. The other three Quakers who had landed went to the English settlements on Long Island,--to Gravesend, Jamaica and Hempstead, from whence two went on and across to Rhode Island, but Robert Hodgson called the inhabitants of Hempstead to a meeting in an orchard on the following First-Day. Hempstead men were largely of the theocratic type of mind; they had their publicly paid minister, and they had heard of the Quakers. A magistrate sent the constable to arrest Hodgson, who was found pacing the orchard in quiet meditation before the appointed time. Robert says that the magistrate "kept me a prisoner in his house, but while he went to his worship many staid and heard the truth declared." This meeting, at which an imprisoned minister spoke, perhaps from a window, was the earliest Quaker meeting in this Province. The date was the 9th of 6th month (August) 1657. The magistrate, returning from church to find his house a chapel, forthwith removed Hodgson to another house, but to little purpose. "In the latter part of the day many came to me, and those who had been my enemies, after they had heard the truth, confessed to it."

Stuyvesant, notified of the danger, sent the sheriff, the jailer and twelve musketeers to bring the prisoner and his entertainers to the city. Two hospitable women, one with a four months old child in her arms, who had entertained the stranger, were taken to New Amsterdam in a cart, to the tail of which the plumed Hodgson was secured. Twenty miles they traveled, mostly at night. At the end of the journey the women were soon released, but Robert was led to a dungeon, "full of vermin", and "so odious, for wet and dirt, as I never saw." Robert was sentenced, without being allowed to plead, to two years work at a wheelbarrow or to pay a fine of 600 Guilders. He would do neither, so he was ordered back to the dungeon, and to see no Englishmen. Brought forth in a few days to hear a paper in Dutch (which he knew not) and at which the Dutch people shook their heads in disapproval, he was again put in the dungeon for a few days, then chained to a wheelbarrow, and commanded to work. Knowing that he had not transgressed the Dutch law (i.e., a law of Holland) he refused, was beaten by "a lusty crabbed negro slave" with a tarred rope, fainted and fell, was raised, refainted at about the hundredth blow, was taken to the fort and there left all day in the hot August sunshine, where, unfed, he again fainted. Back again to the dungeon, where his mind "was staid upon the Lord." A week later, stripped to the waist, he was hung up by the hands with a weight to his feet, and beaten with rods. Two more nights and a day in the dungeon, and without food. Again refusing to work or pay a fine, he was again suspended and beaten. A woman came, like a good Samaritan, to dress his wounds. Her husband vainly offered a fatted ox to be allowed to remove Hodgson to his own home. Citizens offered to raise money for the fine, but Robert felt not easy to accept their offer. When strength returned he willingly labored enough to pay for the coarse food he had eaten. After about five weeks he was set free, and went to Rhode Island.

It was by sufferings, in hunger, in cold, among vermin, among men cruel in their ignorance, that this meeting for worship of God and service of man was begun. But there must be further endurance of persecution before Quakerism was to be well established (in this Province). In the meantime it spread like fire in the stubble through the untheocratic English Townships of Flushing and Oyster Bay. The inhabitants of Flushing, could not accept Stuyvesant's order forbidding entertainment of a Quaker, and Edward Heart, the Town Clerk, drew up a manly protest, which was signed by him, and by the Schout (Sheriff), Tobias Feake and twenty six other citizens. It stated, courteously but firmly, that they could not find it in their hearts to condemn nor to persecute Quakers, desiring "in this case not to judge least we be judged; neither to condemn least we be condemned." Several of the signers afterwards became Quakers. Stuyvesant abolished the Township Government and set up a Dutch organization instead. Tobias Feake and Edward Heart were imprisoned, the former driven from the Colony, and the latter excused on his abject apology. The Town Meeting could be destroyed, but Quakerism could not be stamped out.

Again in 1662 came persecution. Hannah Bowne of Flushing having joined the Quakers, her husband, John, also heard the truth and embraced it. John was banished, and Hannah later died in London in the service of Truth.

After the English took the province in 1664 Stuyvesant retired to his estate, or bouwery, where he soon died, but not before personally apologizing to John Bowne.

Friends increased rapidly and probably had meetings for Worship with more or less regularity from 1657 in Flushing, Oysterbay, Gravesend and other places. After John Bowne's house was built, in 1661, a meeting was regularly held there until the Flushing meeting house was built, in 1694. Meetings for Discipline were organized early, probably before 1665, but no minutes were kept or written until the 2nd of 3rd Month, 1671, when at the Half Year's Meeting at Oysterbay, the earliest minute in America was written. Marriages, however, were recorded as early as 1663. (NB: The above paragraph is quoted from John Cox's "Catalogue of Records")

George Rofe, coming from England in 1661 by way of Maryland, "in a small boat with only two Friends," says of New Amsterdam: "I had service among both Dutch and English. I was in the chief city of the Dutch, and gave a good sound, but they forced me away; and so we had meeting through the Islands in good service."

John Burnyeat appears to have held the first Quaker meeting in this city, in 1671, on his return from New England. He states in his Truth Exalted, 1691, p 142, how he was at the Autumn Half Yearly Meeting at Oyster Bay, whence he "went to Flushing, and down to Gravesend; and when I had visited Friends there, I went to New York, and had a meeting; and then took shipping for Maryland there."

William Edmundson says in his Journal for 1672 (Dublin Edition, p 63) "I took Passage by Sea (from Maryland) and about Ten Days after landed safe at New-York where no Friends lived. John Evans of Jamaica being in my company at that time, we lodged at a Dutch Woman's House, who kept an Inn, and I was moved of the Lord to get a Meeting, in that town; for there had not been one there before; so I spoke to the Woman of the House to let us have a Meeting, who was very willing, and let us have a large Dining-Room; also furnished it with Seats, we gave notice thereof, and had a brave large Meeting, some of the Chief Officers, Magistrates and leading Men of the Town were at it, very attentive they were, the Lord's Power being over them all. Several of them appeared very loving after the Meeting." He evidently had not heard of Burnyeat's preaching there the year before.

This Dutch woman was the widow Matje Wesels, who for many years kept an inn by the waterside. She had seen John Bowne banished, and had kept his chest for him the night previous. She was a notable woman, and has had noted descendants. Edmundson says that she and her daughter wept when he left them. Many other earnest preachers of the word came to America, and most of these cheered the little Quaker band here, but George Fox, who came to America in 1672, did not enter this city then renamed New Yorke.

MEETING FOR WORSHIP:

The meeting for worship has always been the very core and center of all Quaker organization. Without this frequent gathering for Divine light and leading none of the other phases of Quaker activity would be possible. The Quaker meeting is begun with silence, and without a program. Not a mere physical stillness, but a living quiet out of which speech or prayer may develop, and surely spiritual strength and comfort, if sought.

John Greenleaf Whittier in his poem "The Meeting" says:

And so I find it well to come
For deeper rest to this still room,
For here the habit of the soul
Feels less the outer world's control;
The strength of mutual purpose pleads
More earnestly our common needs;
And from the silence multiplied
By these still forms on either side,
The world that time and sense have known,
Falls off and leaves us God alone.

THE MONTHLY MEETING:

The Monthly Meeting is the executive body of the Quaker organization. It is attended by delegates from the several Meetings for Worship which belong to and are governed by it. It is a business meeting which administers the affairs of its subordinate meetings. It keeps all records, such as births, deaths, marriages, disownments, certificates of removal, members received and released, etc., for all of the Meetings for Worship which it controls; and since these are the records which are of interest to genealogy, it is usually only necessary to search the Monthly Meeting books for genealogical purposes. However, to find the very earliest records in America it is necessary to search the books kept by the meetings for Worship prior to the dates when the Monthly Meeting to which they belonged was organized. After that, the complete records of interest to genealogy were always kept by the Monthly Meeting.

The records of the Monthly Meeting, its subordinate meetings and subsidiary organizations, are numerous and valuable; and, since they cover every activity of the members, they give an intimate picture of the social life, and somewhat of the special contribution of the Quakers to the religious life of the locality represented. But the most important of these to posterity are the Vital Statistics, all of which have been carefully preserved for almost 300 years.

THE YEARLY MEETING:

The Yearly Meeting is the legislative body governing all other bodies, and is attended by delegates appointed by all branches of the lower bodies; only the delegates sent by the Quarterly Meetings have the power to decide questions brought before the Meeting.

The first Yearly Meeting to be held in America was held in Rhode Island in 1660, and came to be known as the New England Yearly Meeting. Until the New York Yearly Meeting was organized in 1696, all subordinate meetings in New York and on Long Island were under the jurisdiction of the New England Yearly Meeting. There has been some question by historians as to the date of the first Yearly Meeting held in New England, some claiming it was held in 1659, others that it was held in 1660 and still others that it was held in 1661. But be that as it may, the New York Yearly Meeting was set off from the New England Yearly Meeting by the following minute:

"At a Generall Yearly meeting at ye house of Walter Newberrys in Rhoad Island ye: 14th:daye of ye:4th mo; 1695-----

It is also Agreed yt ye meeting at Longe Island shall Bee From this time a Yearely meeting and yt John Bowne & John Rodman Shall take Ceare to (sic.) Receive all Such papers as Shall Come to ye yearly meeting in Long Island (sic.) & Correspond with Friends Appoynted in London -----

-----The Second Daye following:ye Epistle to Friends was Red & ordered to bee sent: Soe ye meeting Concluded Referring to ye next yearely meeting."

The first session was on 3rd Mo. (May) 29, 1696, and it has met every year since in the latter part of the same month (called 5th Mo. since the change from Old Style to New Style in 1752.)

By the following minute of the Yearly Meeting in 1746, Westbury Quarterly Meeting seems to have been held three times in the year, and the Yearly Meeting took the place of the fourth Quarter.

"Whereas this meeting is now concluded to be an Yearly Meeting & not a Quarterly One it is Thought proper that the order of the State of Meetings or anything Else from the Monthly Meetings of Flushing & Westbury be first Carried into the Quarterly Meeting at Westbury in the Twelfth Month & from thence Recommended unto this meeting until Friends see cause to Order it Otherways & that the order shall always come in writing."

It was generally called the "Yearly Meeting held at Flushing" till 1777, the "Yearly Meeting held at Westbury" 1778-1793, the "Yearly Meeting held in the City of New York" 1794 to 1898 when the name of the Fifteenth Street Yearly Meeting was changed to its present form. After the separation in 1827, two separate Yearly Meetings were organized, the one held at Fifteenth Street being called Hicksite, and the one held at Twentieth Street being called Orthodox. The Hicksite Branch, being the largest, retained most of the books of the meetings which had been kept prior to 1827, and continued in them the records of its own members. The Orthodox Branch, after reorganizing in 1828, started a new set of books beginning with that year. (It is to be remembered, however, that both branches were of the same origin and had the same ancestors and the same ancestral genealogical records. Genealogy does not recognize differences between religious beliefs; nor are ancestral genealogical records affected by family quarrels. The Hicksite Friends and the Orthodox Friends are fruits of the same ancestral tree, although they grew on separate branches after 1827. The genealogical records of both branches, therefore, are compiled together in this Volume, as if no differences had ever occurred.

The Quakers of New York City were in no sense withdrawn from the world. Many have gained high standing as Doctors, Educators, Scientists and leaders in Social Welfare in the civic life of the city. In business they were largely Merchants, Importers, Manufacturers, Bankers, etc. They were austere and severe with importers of slaves. Awakened by John Woolman, those who held slaves freed them, and the Meeting disowned the few who failed to do so. Living under a discipline too strict for the good of Society, they disowned for offences which to us appear trivial, especially that of "marrying out", thereby losing a member instead of gaining one. Quakers everywhere were required to live up to their agreements, pay their honest debts, deal fairly and honestly with all men and submit their differences with each other to arbitration by the Meetings.

On the whole, we of today have difficulty in our effort to live up to the principles to which they quietly bore a steadfast witness.

NEW YORK MONTHLY MEETING

The New York Monthly Meeting cannot be considered apart from Flushing Monthly Meeting, because it was generally called Flushing Monthly Meeting until 1795, when the name of Flushing Monthly Meeting was changed to Monthly Meeting of Friends of New York, as of the date 7th Mo. 1, 1795. During the next ten years there was no Flushing Monthly Meeting, and all Friends of Flushing, Newtown, Maspeth Kills and Brooklyn were attached to the Monthly Meeting of Friends of New York. By 1805, however, the meeting had become so large that a second Flushing Monthly Meeting, consisting of Friends of Flushing and Newtown, was set off from the Monthly Meeting of New York, as a separate Monthly Meeting.

But the changing of the name from Flushing Monthly Meeting to the Monthly Meeting of Friends of New York did not change the membership in the least; nor did it necessitate the starting of new books of minutes and records, since all that was needful was to go right on writing the minutes and records in the same books which had been in use by Flushing Monthly Meeting since its inception, the exact date of which cannot be determined, though it is thought to have been 1672.

While Quakerism had been increasing rapidly on Long Island since 1657, William Edmundson says in his Journal of 1672, "I took passage by Sea (from Maryland) and about ten days after landed safe at New York where no Friends lived." (See Historical Narrative). The earliest mention in the meeting records of the meeting in New York City is under the date of 12th of 8th Month (October) 1681, when the weekly Fifth day meeting in New York having been of late neglected, and they desiring the meeting to take care of the establishment thereof, it was agreed the "ye first day meeting shall remaine at Rob: Storys & ye fifth day meeting at Lew Morris house Untill a Publick Meeting House shall be provided."

Therefore it must be assumed that after the visit of William Edmundson (1672) persecution of Quakers in New York was lifted and Quakerism there began to flourish. But it was not until 1697 that a Quaker Meeting House was actually built in New York City; and it was not until a hundred years thereafter that Quakers in New York City became so numerous and so influential that the name of Flushing Monthly Meeting was changed to Monthly Meeting of Friends in New York. (See Historical Sketch of Flushing Monthly Meeting.)

In 1685 Isaac Horner, an Oyster Bay man, collected all available vital statistics of Friends on Long Island and copied them all in a single parchment bound book. This same book was used thereafter by Flushing Monthly Meeting for its own records. Thus the early records of Westbury Monthly Meeting were preserved in the books of Flushing Monthly Meeting. But Flushing Monthly Meeting finally (1795) became New York Monthly Meeting, and (1805) a new Flushing Monthly Meeting was organized. Thus all early records of Westbury and Flushing are found in the books of New York Monthly Meeting. This is to be remembered by the searcher, and is pointed out here to avoid confusion.

MEETING HOUSES:

The earliest meeting house in the province was built at Oyster Bay Village in 1672, but Flushing was the center of Quaker influence. The Flushing Meeting house, built 1694, and later enlarged, is the oldest house of worship in continuous use in the State of New York.

The first meeting house in New York City was built in 1697 on the north side of Green Street (now Liberty Place). This was succeeded by a larger house facing on Crown Street (now Liberty Street) in 1748. These two adjacent sites are now covered by the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York. The ground was sold in 1825 and the meeting removed to Hester Street. From this third meeting house, after the Separation of 1828, the Orthodox group removed to Henry Street, thence to Orchard Street and in 1859 to the present meeting house on Twentieth Street, at Gramercy Park. The "liberal" or Hicksite group removed from Hester Street in 1861 to the present meeting house on Fifteenth Street at Stuyvesant Square. Other meeting houses have been built and torn down, but these two are the lineal successors of the little meeting house of 1697. A meeting at Newtown, L. I. was also a part of this Monthly Meeting. The two branches which separated in 1828 are in good unity, and joint meetings and activities are numerous.

VITAL RECORDS:

The following data has been extracted from the various and numerous records of both branches of Friends, all of which are collected together in Friends' Record Room, 15 Rutherford Place, New York City.

The record of marriages begins in 1663, preceded by an account of the celebrated case, in England, whereby the legality of Quaker marriages was indisputably established. Births as early as 1640 are recorded. The earliest extant minute of a Quaker meeting, 23/3d Mo. (May) 1671, is in our records. Burials in New York

City from 1696 to 1819 were in the original ground on Green Street (now Liberty Place) corner of Liberty Street. In 1819 land for a burial ground was purchased on Houston Street. When the Liberty Street ground was sold in 1825 the bones of the early members were removed to a vault in the Houston Street ground. The present cemetery, of both branches, was begun in 1847 on the Coney Island Plank Road, outside of Brooklyn. When the Houston Street ground was sold in 1874, the bones of the pioneers were reentered in Westbury Meeting ground. Prospect Park now entirely surrounds our cemetery.

FLUSHING MONTHLY MEETING

The original Monthly Meeting of Flushing, Newtown and New York became in time known as New York Monthly Meeting. It was so large in 1805 that the Preparative Meetings of Flushing and Newtown were set off as Flushing Monthly Meeting.

The Flushing Friends met, perhaps irregularly, from 1657 until John Bowne's house was built in 1661, after which they held a regular meeting there until 1694, when the meeting house was built. They had a burial ground in 1676. At Yearly Meeting, 1696 to 1716, the men met at the meeting house and the women at the Bowne house. The meeting house was built in 1693 of timbers, cut and hewn the preceding winter. It was the largest room in the town, and ample for the Yearly Meeting of 1696.

Stones were never over common on sandy Long Island but in building this house, besides the foundation under the walls, a space in the centre, three by five feet, was surrounded by a stone wall below the floor line, making a pit two feet deep, evidently intended for an open fireplace, where a fire could be burned before a meeting, with a roof opening probably arranged to release the smoke, until the fire was reduced to embers. There are however no ashes or other evidence of a fire there, the early Friends being sufficiently puritanical not to consider warmth a necessity.

By 1716 the house was too small for the Yearly Meeting. A large addition was made, and the west wall of the original house removed, to make the whole into one larger room, for worship, with sliding panels to partition it into two rooms for the business meetings of the men and women. This is the oldest house of worship in the state.

The Friends were early mindful of education, and John Bowne employed a school master for his children. Probably others did the same. With an increasing population in the town, the Friends saw the need of a school house, as shown by the following minute, 6 Mo (Aug) 5, 1703:

"That a School Ma^r being Judged Necessary for ye towne of flushing, it is thought fitt by this meeting yt Samuel Hoyt & ffrancis Doughty Do Seek out a Convenient piece of Ground, to purchase it, & build a School house, thereon, for ye use of friends, about Richard Griffin's lott, uppon the Cross-way, w^{ch} is neere ye Center of Ye towne." The teacher offered to bring the school to mid week meeting in 1709.

The School Fund accounts 1792-1816 shownnames of several Friends not appearing elsewhere in our records.

The Friends in Newtown and Maspeth Kills were a part of the Gravesend Meeting in 1682. On 9 Mo (Nov) 24, 1684 a meeting for worship was allowed, to be held at Robert Field's house every Fourth day. In 1697 the meeting was settled to be every second First day. The Preparative Meeting was laid down in 1771, and the members attached to Flushing Preparative Meeting. Monthly Meeting, however, was held there at intervals until 1780, and occasional meetings were held there as late as 1840. The first meeting house was built in 1722, the second 1760, at what is now Maspeth, L. I. It is long gone, and the adjacent burial ground is neglected and overgrown with weeds.

The records of the Monthly Meeting are in good condition, but for a long period there was negligence in recording data. There are certificates issued for persons of whose membership no record is found, and deaths are recorded, with like lack of background. The records of the other Monthly Meetings in this volume may clear up some of these missing data.

John Bowne was the most notable member in early Flushing. Dr. John Rodman was also very prominent. Data regarding them and other Flushing Quakers before 1805 will be found under New York Monthly Meeting.

As the Orthodox branch in the Monthly Meeting existed only 1828-1829 there are but few references herein concerning them.

WESTBURY MONTHLY MEETING

Meetings for worship had already been held at Woodledge, now Westbury, and at the Farms, later called Lusum, and still later called Jericho, when the earliest Quaker minute in America was written, in 1671. These meetings still exist. Westbury Monthly Meeting may be considered as old as that of Flushing, but no minutes are extant before 1697. Its vital records were for many years recorded in the parchment bound book in which Isaac Horner, an Oyster Bay man, copied in 1685 the vital data of all Quakers on Long Island, and which was continued in use by Flushing (now New York) Monthly Meeting.

While the Quakers of New York City Meeting were largely in commercial business, those of Westbury were always almost universally agricultural. They and their wives rose "while it is yet dark", and tended their flocks and herds, cleared the land they had purchased by definite deeds from the Indians, paying whatsoever the latter asked. Much land so bought and so cleared is still owned and lived on by descendants.

By 1730 a book for their own vital records was begun, in which numerous earlier data were recorded, a few being definitely noted as copied from Flushing records.

Westbury Monthly Meeting included meetings established approximately in the following order:

Oyster Bay; Westbury; Jericho; Matinecock; Cow Neck (now Manhasset), and Bethpage; all of which are still part of the Monthly Meeting except Oyster Bay, which faded out, and Jericho and Bethpage, which were set off as a separate Monthly Meeting. It also had for short periods meetings at Rockaway, Hempstead, Huntington and Secatogue. Secatogue or Sequatague is the old name for Islip, in Suffolk County. A meeting house was mentioned there in 1771.

In the deplorable Separation which occurred in 1828, out of 340 members only 41 including children, were of the Orthodox body. These, with 7 adult and 2 children of Jericho MM called themselves Westbury and Jericho Monthly Meeting, which has ceased to exist. The vital data from their records is herein indicated by the letter O.

It should be noted that besides the Cock-Cocks-Cox Genealogy, 1914, which I have cited as "Cox Gen." there are other Genealogies of Long Island families, Frost, Seaman, Underhill, Jones, etc. and the Oyster Bay Town Records, 1653-1878, which will add to the data herein given. A comparison of dates in some of these genealogies, especially before 1752, will show numerous differences, owing to the number of a month being transposed to the name of a month, and very generally wrong in the genealogies. Besides these printed genealogies, the extensive and accurate data on 60 Long Island families, gathered from Bibles and other family records by the late George W. Cocks, of Glen Cove, now in my possession, cited herein as "Bibles", will probably in time be preserved in some metropolitan Library.

The term "priest" in the records, means an Evangelical or Episcopalian minister - never a Roman Catholic priest.

The dates from tombstones in Quaker burial grounds at Westbury, Matinecock and Manhasset taken by Frank Haviland and George W. Cocks, 1904, have been herein incorporated. In all our Quaker burial grounds many non-members were interred. Most of these were related to members.

J E R I C H O M O N T H L Y M E E T I N G

The early history of this Monthly Meeting and its subordinate meetings is given in the preface of Westbury Monthly Meeting; from which the meeting of Jericho and Bethpage, still existing, were set off in 1789, as a separate Monthly Meeting. It also had a meeting at Half Hollow Hills in southern Huntington, from 1791-1802, and a meeting at Jerusalem, in Hempstead, allowed in 1813 at Samuel Seaman's, in 1819 at Zebulun Seaman's, and in 1827 in a meeting house. This meeting was maintained for many years.

The data from tombstones in the Quaker burial grounds at Jericho and Jerusalem, by Frank Haviland, 1904, and of Bethpage in 1894 by Miss Emma Toedteberg, Librarian of the Long Island Historical Society, have been included in this record. The Bethpage Quaker cemetery has been in use since 1740 or earlier. A Powell burial ground established after 1800, adjoins and also a public cemetery established 1859. Miss Toedteberg gave no clue, but apparently put all in one list. I have therefore included all. While the percentage of Quakers in these outer grounds may be small, those therein interred were largely related to those in the Quaker ground.

In the unfortunate Separation of 1828, out of 199 members in this Monthly Meeting, only 12, including children, were of the Orthodox body. These have been identified by the letter "O".
