Scrapbook of Clara Harriet (Young) Terry of East Moriches, New York

This scrapbook was made by Van Field's maternal grandmother, Clara Harriet (Young) Terry of East Moriches. She was born in Franklinville (Laurel) in 1861, died 1955. She married Chatman D. Terry (1858-1938) of Northville, L.I. They settled in East Moriches, L.I.

She clipped news items related to family members and neighbors as she found in local papers. She was known for her craft work. She painted and was an accomplished photographer, developing and printing her own photos. Many were published in 1989 by Van in his "Illustrated History of the Moriches Bay Area.

The Young and Terry families were found largely on Long Island's North Fork, both dating back to the 1600s. Her mother was Lucy Jane Tuthill from Speonk, L.I.

The Young/Tuthill Line of Clarra Harriet Young

1. MOSES TERRY7 YOUNG (JOHN TUTHILL6, RUFUS5, DANIEL4 YOUNGS, CHRISTOPHER B.(38)3 YOUNG, JOHN (2)2, CHRISTOPHER (REV.)(1) YOUNG1 YONGE) was born 13 Feb 1830, and died 20 Jan 1905. He married LUCY JANE TUTTLE 24 Nov 1852 in M.E. CHURCH, SPEONK, L.I., daughter of ELISHA TUTHILL and HARRIET ROGERS. She was born 26 Dec 1832 in PROB. Speonk, L.I, and died 27 Jul 1910.

Children of MOSES YOUNG and LUCY TUTTLE are:
   i. WILLIAM L B YOUNG, b. 06 Nov 1864; d. 22 Jul 1883.
   ii. JOHN TUTHILL YOUNG, b. 28 Jan 1867; d. 14 Oct 1955, Laurel, NY.
   iii. CLARA HARRIET YOUNG, b. 1861; d. 1955.

The Terry/Luce line of Clara's Husband Chatman D. Terry

1. VAN RENSSELAER11 TERRY (ISIAH T.10, (MAJOR) JOHN CLEEVES9, CAPT. JOHN CLEEVES8, WILLIAM7, CAPT. THOMAS6, THOMAS5, THOMAS4, JAMES3, STEPHEN2, RICHARD1) was born 01 Mar 1824 in Aquebogue, L.I. #832 gc, and died 02 Mar 1922 in Jamesport, L.I.

He married AUGUSTA REEVE LUCE 11 Jan 1853, daughter of NATHANIEL LUCE and MEHETABLE WELLS. She was born 1833, and died 17 Jun 1905.

Children of VAN TERRY and AUGUSTA LUCE are:
   i. LILLIAN LIZZY (HALSEY)12 TERRY, m. MR WHITE.
   ii. ELISIE L. TERRY, b. 1854; m. HENRY W. MOSIER, 22 Apr 1877, Baiting Hollow Res. of Rev.Christopher Young; b. Northville, L.I.
   iii. IDA LEILA TERRY, b. 1855; d. 1860.
   iv. IDELLA TERRY, b. 1856; d. 1860.
   v. CHATMAN D. TERRY, b. 1858; d. 1938.
   vi. WILLIE H. TERRY, b. 1859; d. Lived in Eastport, LI in 1922; m. (1) AMY; m. (2) AMY --.
   vii. ISIAH T. TERRY, b. 1861; d. lived Woodhaven, Queens in 1922; m. ANNIE COLES; d. lived in Hollis, L.I.
   viii. MARY ANN TERRY, b. 1863; d. Jamesport, L.I.
   ix. HENRY WELLS TERRY, b. 1867; m. (1) FANNIE MOSSBACKER; m. (2) PAULINE KNOESS, 01 Oct, LIVING ON MAIN ST., BABYLON, L.I.; b. 1879; d. 1923.
   x. MAHATABLE (HETTIE) TERRY, b. 1870; m. RUDOLPH R. OR GEORGE R. KNOESS; d. lived in Brooklyn, NY.
   xi. SHADRACH L. TERRY, b. 1872; d. Westhampton, NY IN 1922; m. KATIE.
   xii. CORA TERRY, b. 1874; m. GEORGE SPARKS; d. Richmond, Hill, NY.
   xiii. ROSEINE FRANCIS TERRY, b. 1877; d. 1899.
FRIDAY OCTOBER 9, 1903.

LAUREL

Through the columns of the Review we as neighbors and friends extend our deepest heartfelt sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. John T. Young, who have been deeply bereaved by the sad loss of their beloved child, Myron, who fell asleep in Jesus on Wednesday afternoon right in the bloom of beautiful youth. We know no words of sympathy can heal their poor broken hearts or restore the dear one to life again, but in trouble and need is a friend indeed. Myron, in life, was a real little sunbeam, his face was always merry and his heart always light and gay, and oh, how he will be missed in that home and among his little playmates. While their arms have been emptied, he is safe in the arms of Jesus on the other side.

"There is a reaper whose name is Death, And with his sickle keen, He reaps the bearded grain at a breath, And the flowers that grow between."

Mr. and Mrs. Chatman D. Terry, of East Moriches, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage Friday evening. It was, of course, a "silver wedding," and their friends remembered their hosts with fine presents and hoped to help celebrate the golden and diamond weddings of the popular couple. These present included: Mrs. Moses Young, of Laurel; Miss Blanche Leane, of Reensburg; Mrs. Ella Culver, Egbert H. Terry, Miss Minnie Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert J. Raynor, Mr. and Mrs. E. Stanley Brown, Miss Marion R. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Reave, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller, Mrs. George W. Westley, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howell, Miss Mary N. Howell, Miss Alice M. Wines, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Smith.

Mrs. Pauline K. Terry.

Baylone, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Pauline K. Terry, wife of Henry W. Terry, died in her home on Main street yesterday. She had been in a state of coma ten days, brought on by the brain due to worry over financial affairs. She was born in Brooklyn 44 years ago. Her pets were Mr. and Mrs. John C. Knoess, of Riverhead. She is survived by her husband and three brothers, George R. Knoess, of Brooklyn; Charles J. Knoess, of Rockville Centre, and W. Emil Knoess, of Babylon. The funeral, to-morrow morning, will be conducted by the Rev. Edward J. Burg- lingham, rector of Christ Episcopal Church. The burial will be at Riverhead.

N.Y. City, Oct. 1, by Rev. Dr. Hough- ton, Gerald Ralph Knoss, formerly of Riverhead, and Hettie A. Terry of Northville.

N.Y. City, Oct. 1, by Rev. Dr. Houghton, Gerald Ralph Knoss, formerly of Riverhead, and Hettie A. Terry of Northville.

JAMESPORT.

On Tuesday, eight of the ten living chil- dren of Van Rensselaer Terry met in Jamesport, and gave him his and his wife a complete and very happy surprise on the occasion of his eightieth birthday. The only illumination of the supper room was the immense birthday cake on the table, which burned eighty red candles, and the inviting table was graced with the pretty remembrances of the guests. The ten children of Mr. Terry are all married, and living away from the paternal home. The eight present at the commemoration were as fol- lows: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Terry, of East Moriches; Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Terry, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Terry, of Babylon; Mr. Harry Terry, of Babylon; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knyser, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Skidmore, of Jamesport; Mrs. George Shanks of Amagansett. Mr. Terry is a man and active at eighty, and he is so liked, generally, that the entire community unites with his children in wishing him many happy returns of the day.

N.Y. City, Oct. 1, by Rev. Dr. Houghton, Gerald Ralph Knoss, formerly of Riverhead, and Hettie A. Terry of Northville.

TWO MISSING TOYS ARE BROUGHT HOME BY FREEPORT POLICE.

Two small children were reported missing from their homes yesterday afternoon in Freeport, but were soon located by the police and returned to their respective parents.

Mr. Gluckman, the photographer of the South Grove street, Freeport, reported to the police yesterday afternoon that his three-year-old daughter was missing from home. The child was located by Patrolman Harry Albin, at the residence of Mrs. Briggs of 209 Roosevelt avenue, Freeport.

Mr. Gluckman, the photographer of the South Grove street, Freeport, reported to the police yesterday afternoon that his three-year-old daughter was missing from home. The child was located by Patrolman Harry Albin, at the residence of Mrs. Briggs of 209 Roosevelt avenue, Freeport.

George Findly of 38 South Grove street, Freeport, reported that his four-year-old son, George, Jr., was missing. The boy was last seen at 4:15 p. m., and was last seen picking pickaninnies at the south end of Grove street near Archer street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Terry of East Moriches on Tuesday of last week were the guests of the former's father, Van Rensselaer Terry, who celebrated his eightieth birthday at the old home- stead at Jamesport, Long Island. All of the ten children are living and they were present on the occasion to greet and offer congratulations to their venerable father. Although Mr. Terry has reached the four score milestone along life's journey and has entered the octogenarian class, he is still a hale and hearty man, possessed of an abundance of activity that gives promise of prolonging his years at least a decade.

TWO MISSING TOYS ARE BROUGHT HOME BY FREEPORT POLICE.

Two small children were reported missing from their homes yesterday afternoon in Freeport, but were soon located by the police and returned to their respective parents.

Mr. Gluckman, the photographer of the South Grove street, Freeport, reported to the police yesterday afternoon that his three-year-old daughter was missing from home. The child was located by Patrolman Harry Albin, at the residence of Mrs. Briggs of 209 Roosevelt avenue, Freeport.

George Findly of 38 South Grove street, Freeport, reported that his four-year-old son, George, Jr., was missing. This boy was last seen at 4:15 p. m., and was last seen picking pickaninnies at the south end of Grove street near Archer street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Terry of East Moriches on Tuesday of last week were the guests of the former's father, Van Rensselaer Terry, who celebrated his eightieth birthday at the old home- stead at Jamesport, Long Island. All of the ten children are living and they were present on the occasion to greet and offer congratulations to their venerable father. Although Mr. Terry has reached the four score milestone along life's journey and has entered the octogenarian class, he is still a hale and hearty man, possessed of an abundance of activity that gives promise of prolonging his years at least a decade.
West Hampton.

The announcement was made a few days ago of the marriage of Daniel W. Tuttle and Mrs. Lizzie Halsey of Speonk. The marriage knot was tied Thursday evening, Jan. 14, by Rev. B. C. Miller, Jr., pastor of the M. E. Church. Mrs. Tuttle attended prayer meeting in the church, after which they called on Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Fordham, requesting them to accompany them to the parsonage and act as witnesses. After the ceremony was performed Mrs. and Mr. Tuttle drove to West Hampton Beach and attended the dance which was then in progress, their friends being ignorant of their marriage.

Bridge Hampton.

A happy social event in which two young people were made one engaged attention in this place on Wednesday. The scene was the home of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Havens, where their daughter, Miss Anna Blair Havens, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John Tuthill Young of Franklinville.

The ceremony took place in a parlor which had been transformed into a beautiful floral bower, the contracting parties taking their station beneath an arch of lilacs, from which a handsome chandelier was suspended. The officiating clergyman was Rev. F. J. Shackleton, pastor of the M. E. Church, and Miss Belle Cooks, organist of that church, played the wedding march. The marriage ceremony, with the ring was used. Miss Mary E. Havens, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Leff G. Learie of Brooklyn, the groom's cousin, was best man.

The bride wore a handsome gown of figured white lawn, trimmed with lace and lilies of the valley. She also wore a white veil, caught up with lilies of the valley, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The flowers were a gift of the groom to the bridesmaid's daughter. The bride wore a white netting, with white ribbons. The bride's traveling dress was of brown cloth, with hat, etc., to match.

After the marriage ceremony, the guests of the occasion partook of a wedding luncheon in the dining room, which was profusely decorated with carnations and chrysanthemums. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents from a wide circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Young left Bridge Hampton Wednesday afternoon for their bridal tour, which included a visit to Niagara Falls. Upon their return they will reside at Franklinville.

The writer joins with many other friends of the young couple in tendering cordial congratulations and best wishes.

MARRIED.

Bridge Hampton, Nov. 11, at the bride's home, by Rev. F. J. Shackleton, Miss Anna Blair Havens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Havens, to Mr. John Tuthill Young of Franklinville.

MARRIED.

At Franklinville, 22d inst, by Rev. A. D. Downs, Clinton D. Terry of Northville and Clara H. daughter of Moses T. Young, of Franklinville. (Dutro remembered, and he extends to you the young couple's highest wishes for their long life and continued happiness.

Miss Beatrice Terry of East Moriches and Paul L. Field of Patchogue were married on Saturday, December 4.

Franklinville Academy.

The fifteenth year of Franklinville Academy begins. December 4, 1882.

Speonk.

Mr. L. F. Young, a highly respected and well beloved woman and for many years a resident here, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. D. Terry, of East Moriches, on the 27th inst. Her funeral was at her late residence and home of her son. J. T. Young, on Wednesday, the interment being made by the side of her late husband, M. T. Young. The services were conducted by the Rev. Geo. R. Garrelton.

The life of our, departed friend and neighbor had many graces of character which are not alone worthy of emulation but will always remain in the memory of all who knew him and loved him. The buckwheat went, a patient, kindly disposition, fitted him in her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand. She was blessed with a patient, kindly disposition which extended to her home life by a charming motherhood and among her wide circle of friends by a charity that overlooked the failings and mistakes of others and always offered the helping hand.
There's Money in 'Possums.

EAST MORICHES, June 22.—Irving Terry, a boy of 12 years, killed an old opossum with a stone on the head last week and will rake in 15 cents. He heard a commotion among the chickens and went to see the cause of the disturbance. He found a chicken with "Possums at twenty-five cents each count as fast as chickens in raising money" to buy a new wheel.

Mrs. Terry's Little Pig.

EAST MORICHES, June 2.—"Mary had a little lamb," and Mrs. C. D. Terry has a little pig which, like Mary's little lamb, would follow Mrs. Terry everywhere if allowed to do so. The mother pig is a large, fat one, and there is a place for it at the table. It was seen with several dollars in it, which is a notable fact in the life of a hog. Its name is Mr. Terry's Pig, and it is a pet of the family.

In Memoriam

Editor News:—The hearts of many were saddened to hear of the removal of Mrs. Lucy J. Young, whose passing to the larger and fuller life was recorded in the issue of the News of July 2.

Mrs. Young was a woman of sterling qualities, proverbial for cheerfulness. Through pain and weariness she smiled. Her tears she told to the Master. Those who knew her appreciated her most.

In days of activity "she looked well to the ways of her household, and she ate not the bread of idleness." She stretched forth her hands to the poor, and she stretched forth her hands to the needy, and in many other walks in life it can conscientiously be affirmed that she did her work well.

When her arduous work was over and her allotted task was to sit with folded hands and wait, she was always ready, for she did her work well. "She fought a good fight, she kept the faith, and when her battle was won and life's fit faithful lover all was well. Her work was finished, the goal was reached, and she was taken to her resting place in the Father's House. Mattituck, July 3, 1910.

M. A. G.

An item in the Eagle and in the county papers states that Raymond Terry, a teacher in the Patchogue High School, has received an appointment as Inspector of Schools in the Philippines. It is reported that he will sail within a few weeks. Mr. Terry is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Terry of East Moriches, and a brother of W. I. Terry, of this place.

With his friends we wish him success in his new position.

East Moriches School.

EAST MORICHES, June 13.—The closest examination of the East Moriches Graded School will be held in the Presbyterian Church on Friday evening, June 15. The graduates are Mrs. Arthur Howard and Russell Terry. Mrs. Howard will present the diplomas.

Mrs. Howard has furnished the chapel, the choir and the choir of the M. E. Church will be made up of the graduates and reciters will be chosen by a number of the other pupils of the school.

The class will exhibit of school work at the school building Saturday afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock. The school has built a new wing for the principalship of Mr. Hulse and his friends are much pleased with the results.

STATION AT EAST MORICHES.

It Now Seems Assured as the Money is Ready.

Special to the Brooklyn Times.

EAST MORICHES, March 1.—A passenger station at East Moriches is now assured, as the money is being subscribed, and work will be commenced in time to have the station ready for use early in May.

Many unsuccessful attempts have been made in the past, and at one of these $1,000 was raised, but the company refused the offer. During the summer of 1895 the State railroad commissioners were appealed to and held sessions here, taking testimony as to the needs of the village, and decided against forcing the company to grant a station.

The people had come to the conclusion that they were doomed to exclusion as long as Mr. Corbin was in control and had given up hopes. As soon as a new administration came in, he says, of J. V. Kirby and W. J. Howard was again renewed. They have assurance now that the company will give them adequate train accommodations during the coming season, if these requests will be granted the ground and buildings.

East Moriches is the first village, through which a passenger, from west, passes, which is located in such a manner as to get a clear view of the bay and beach from the train and many transient travelers openly comment on the beautiful view. East Moriches is reached and the beautiful bay and beach beyond is seen, 'why don't they have a station here?'

HUNTING MUD TURTLES.

EAST MORICHES, May 8.—The schoolboys have made quite an object and have picked up some pocket change hunting mud turtles for turtle soup. Last Saturday George Osborn, a boy of about 14 years, came to a man who was hunting a large snapping turtle, local vernacular, Mud Turtle, and promised to give the boy the first turtle and weigh him pounds. The boy has been receiving from three to five cents for each turtle shipped, and are now wild turtle hunters as soon as the schoolhouse door opens to liberate, expecting to count their returns by dollars for the big game.

Sailing parties have been quite the rage for the past week. According to arrangement a party went out with Capt. Moses T. Young in the Maid of the Mist Saturday. They landed at Shinnecock Hills and went to Southampton by rail, having time for a pleasant visit to the surf before their return. On the return trip they put in at the Shinnecock canal for a short tarry, reaching home in good season. Wednesday another party went to see in Capt. Oox's yacht Jennie T. Rose's Grove being their objective point. Despite of an occasional shower and some rather uncertain waves now and then, which were calculated to interfere with the interior comfort of people unaccustomed to the water, a good time was had. Thursday was a very good time to stay ashore, but for Friday an other trip was arranged, the plan being to employ the Jennie T. again for a cruise about the bay.

A smaller party of younger people had a picnic at Peconic Bay on Wednesday. Through the courtesy of Capt. Moses T. Young they were given a sail on the Maid of the Mist, which experience was said to be the most enjoyable of the day's outings.

DRIFTS HOLD TRAINS.

Greenport Express Delayed Three Hours by Snow Bank.

(Special to the Brooklyn Times.)
Greensport, March 9.—The evening train was blocked by snow last night.

It was delayed three hours. There were heavy drifts of snow in the some twenty feet high. Freight was stalled in the afternoon ahead of the evening train. It was a freak storm here, first rain then hail, then inches of snow, then the sun came out all in two hours.

Raymond Terry, a teacher in the Patchogue High School, grandson of Mrs. M. T. Young of this place, made a week-end visit here in company with a friend from New Rochelle. Mr. Terry has taken a Government position and in a few weeks will sail for the Philippines, where he will be in the capacity of inspector of schools. He will be gone at least two years. His many friends unite in wishing him bon voyage and that he may be back as soon as possible.
Franklinville, March 29, Miss Elizabeth P. Wells, aged 88y, 4m, 2d.

FRANKLINVILLE.

After a lingering illness Miss Elizabeth P. Wells died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wells, in this place Sunday morning. The largely attended funeral services were conducted in the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon, and the interment took place the same day in the village cemetery. Rev. Wm. H. Seely, pastor of the church, conducted the services, being assisted by Rev. E. D. Warren of Matituck and Rev. C. A. Stonehouse of Aquogue. Prominent in church work and earnest in proselyting all things that made for the good of society, Miss Wells was a valued member of our social circles, and her removal makes a loss that is sadly felt. In their sore affliction the relatives of the deceased young lady have the sympathy of all who know them.

DIED.

Young.—At Asheville, N. C., on Wednesday, May 28, Miss Edith Wynne Young, of consumption. Miss Young was a native of Orient, L. I., and had been out of health for several years. Her mother was with her when she passed away. The body was embalmed and brought to Orient for interment, where the funeral took place last Sabbath. Miss Young was a sincere and earnest Christian, and by her genial and loving nature had won a large circle of devoted friends, both at home and at Asheville. At Dansville, N. Y., where she spent several years at the well known Jackson Sanitarium, she was an especial favorite and beloved by all. She had there the best of care, and all that medical skill could possibly do for her was done at that institution. Her life was probably thus prolonged for several years, even after it became evident that her disease was fatal. Her own courage never failed, and up to the last she hoped and expected to recover. By the advice of the best physicians she spent the last years of her life at Asheville, N. C., where her mother was with her during the past year, and took care of her during her last illness.

CELEBRATED 77TH BIRTHDAY.

Friends of V. E. Terry, of Sound Avenue, Honor Him.

SOUND AVENUE, RIVERHEAD, March 4.—A surprise party was tendered V. E. Terry, a prominent resident of Sound avenue, on Friday evening last, in celebration of his seventy-seventh birthday. Mrs. G. M. Spark, of Jamesport, presented her father with a huge birthday cake studded with seven lights. Mr. Terry cut the cake, and Miss Edith B. Brown, of Jamesport, made a short speech. Those who were present included Mr. and Mrs. A. B. H. N. Luce, Mrs. E. Tuft, and Miss Ada V. V. Luce.

EAST MORICHES, May 24.—John W. Culver, a prominent farmer of this village, died this morning, aged 76 years, after a long illness of consumption, aged 49 years. He was left by his wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York. He leaves a wife, one brother, Jere Culver; one sister, Mrs. J. S. Culver; two nieces, Misses Ella Culver, in New York, and Mrs. L. C. Culver, in New York.
At 97, He Still Digs Holes, Cuts Wood and Hikes Miles

(Special to The Eagle)

Riverhead, L.I., Jan. 22—Are there any 97-year-old youngsters in Brooklyn who can get down into a hole and shovel sand for half a day "just for the fun of the thing?"

Are there any who can saw his own wood with a buck-saw just for the sake of doing something to "pass away the time" or to keep his muscles limbered up?

Are there any who can take a cross-country hike of seven miles without "turning a hair," perspiring, or stopping now and then to puff?

How many are there whose eyesight is still perfect, whose mind is still keen, whose face is full, seamless, ruddy? How many who can take their three square meals a day, without danger of indigestion, and ask for more?

These thoughts are called to the minds of people in Jamesport, L.I., when they reflect on a recent exploit of their fine old citizen, Van Rensselaer Terry, who will be 97 years old on March 1, but who, according to his old neighbors who know him well, hasn’t grown a day older in looks or actions in at least a half century.

In many ways older than perfect physical trim he is entitled to recognition for he is hailed as a fine citizen in every way: companionable, well-read, head-minded, a splendid neighbor, and so on.

It was an old week that he attracted more than passing notice. Many days other than perfect physical trim he was engaged in digging a basement for a new built in his village. Like other men with nothing much to do he wandered over to the excavation, consorted with the contractor grumbling about being short of labor.

"Want a good man?" sang out Mr. Terry.

"Sure," replied the contractor, looking around to see who was available for a job. He didn’t see anyone whom he would take hold and handle a shovel, but was dumfounded a moment later to see Mr. Terry calmly taking off his coat. Then he was engaged in digging a basement, and calmly went to work—and he worked the rest of the morning.

"Kindly like to help out in community work," he explained.

And when noon time came he walked briskly home and ate a good dinner.

Not long before, that bit of physical exercise walked seven miles one day to call on a neighbor, although he is not one of many ways other than perfect physical trim he permits himself to do it. In fact his step is so light it takes a good walker to keep up with him when he’s out on a hike, and his mind is so keen that he is still shrewd in business matters.

One thing that has kept him young is his genial optimism; he is as "dull" a days in his makeup. The sun is always shining, the way he looks at life.

Mr. Terry was born in Aquobogue, Riverhead, Long Island, and has always lived in this section, at first following the hard and active life of a farmer, retiring from that occupation several years ago. But his physique was so sturdy—built so much like a stocky hickory stick—that the life of a farmer made no inroads on his health.

And, like some other old-fashioned Americans, he had a large family to hustle for in his younger days—a total of 15 children, several of whom are still living; among them being Mrs. George E. Knoess, of 444 New York ave., Brooklyn; Mrs. Cora D. Sparks, of 41 Lefferts ave., Richmond Hill, and Harold, Mrs. Terry.

By courtesy of Brooklyn Eagle.

VAN RENSSLEAER SKIDMORE

Residents of this section were shocked and saddened Tuesday when they learned that Van Rensselaer Skidmore, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Skidmore of Jamesport, had been killed in action on the French battlefield. "Vannie" as he was familiarly known to a host of friends and acquaintances here, is the first boy from Riverhead to die in the service during the present war.

Young Skidmore, who was 25 years old, enlisted as a mechanic in the aviation corps last fall, and had been in France about two months. It was not generally known that he had been assigned to the air duty, and that fact caused surprise among his friends. "Vannie" was of medium height, and was noted for his energy and his marked mobile business in Brooklyn at the time of his enlistment. He was married last summer to Miss Emily Louise Hallock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Hallock, of Speonk.

While a student at the Riverhead high school, he was a keen favorite, and was one of the best basketball players that has ever played on the local school team. He was a young man of exemplary habits and possessed a very pleasing personality, and made friends of all with whom he came into contact.

In addition to his young wife and his parents, the deceased is survived by a sister, Mrs. Roy Hooper, of Riverhead. They have the deepest sympathy of all in the hour of their great bereavement.

As a patriotic boy, "Vannie" sold old blankets to the town and high school service flags.

Later—According to information received Tuesday morning, "Vannie" was killed at night while he was doing sentry duty.
TERRY—SMITH.
The oldest homestead in and the home of the patentee of Moriches, for the first time in nearly a century, was the scene of a marriage at noon Wednesday, when two old families of Long Islanders were united by the marriage of Miss Beatrix Smith to W. Irving Terry. The old homestead has been repaired and modernized, but it is yet held in direct line from the patentee by Capt. Oliver B. Smith. While there have been many Smiths born in the old house for nearly a hundred years, they had been born boys. The last marriage in the old homestead, having been that of Hannah Smith, married to Elias Pelletreau. Hannah Smith was the daughter of Josiah Smith, and the bride of Wednesday is his great-great-granddaughter. Her father, Capt. Oliver B. Smith, while living on the old homestead, is a well-known yacht skipper and at present employed by William Tselin. The old place was rejuvenated and in accordance with the season on this occasion was a perfect tower of greens, holly and mistletoe, and good cheer was written large in the spacious old mansion. Miss Beatrix is the younger daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Smith, and is a great favorite with the young people in Center Moriches and East Moriches, and has a host of well-wishers. The groom, W. Irving Terry, is in charge of the Center Moriches end of the butcher business, being associated with his father under the name of C. D. Terry & Son. The ancestral home of the Terry was in Southold town, where they are still well known as a sterling family. The Rev. Mr. Geddes, pastor of the Center Moriches Presbyterian church officiated. The bridesmaid was Miss Marie Bishop, of Center Moriches, a cousin of the bride, and the best man was Raymond Terry, brother of the groom. The bride was gowned in pink and white pomegranate silk trimmed in white lace, and carried bridal roses. Her traveling costume was of gun metal gray. The bridesmaid wore champagne colored silk and carried pink carnations. After the ceremony refreshments were served and at 8 P.M., the many friends of the bride and groom showed good will for the happy couple by moving en masse to the railroad station to shower rice and old shoes as the departure was made for a bridal tour to the Southland.

EAST MORICHES

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Welch entertained the following guests last Saturday evening to celebrate the 47th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jere N. Rogers, of Rehoboth, Md., and Mrs. C. D. Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Fordham, Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Raynor, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rogers and Miss Elsie Rogers. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were presented with many beautiful gifts. All enjoyed cards and refreshments, which included a pretty birthday cake celebrating the birthday of Mrs. Tuttle, a sister of Mrs. Jere Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Terry attended the annual "cousins" party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Fordham, of Westhampton, Saturday.

Mrs. C. D. Terry was greeted by many friends at the open house in Firemen's Hall on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Terry has been confined to the Southampton Hospital for many months, with a broken hip received when hit by an automobile near her home, almost a year ago. Mrs. Terry does very fine handiwork and exhibited many pieces at the show.

Mother Shipton's Prophecy.
Here is Mother Shipton's Prophecy:
Carriages without horses shall go And accidents till the world with woe.
Around the world, thoughts shall fly In the twinkling of an eye.
Waters shall yet more wonders do, Now strange, shall ye yet be true.
The world upside down shall be And gold found at the root of a tree.
Through hills man shall ride And no horse nor ass be at his side.
Under the water man shall walk, Shall ride, shall sleep, shall talk.
In the air men shall be seen In white, in black, in green.
Iron in the water shall float As easy as a wooden boat.
Gold shall be found mid stony In a land that's not unknown.
Fire and water shall wonders do England shall at last admit a Jew.
And this world to an end shall come
In eighteen hundred and eighty-one.
These lines are supposed to be 300 years old.
There is much that is quite remarkable about them—but the old girl slipped a cog on the last line.

HELEN WORTH.

MATTEUCK

Henry P. Tuttle & Son, the Traveler's business agent at Matteuck.

A lovelier October day than Thursday of last week it would have been hard to imagine. All Nature's efforts seemed to be put forth for the marriage day, and the spacious house of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Grabie, our good neighbors, was filled with about 150 guests, hidden to the nuptials of our eldest daughter, Annie Amelia, to Mr. Harry Coleman Young, the popular station agent at Laurel. A few minutes before one o'clock Miss Cornelia Duryea Gilder-sheeve played several selections upon the piano, and as the clock struck her fingers glided into the Wedding March and the bridal party came into view as follows: Ribbon girls, Miss Jennie Louise Tuthill and Miss Jennie Jetter of Eastport; bridesmaid, Miss Lizzie Belle Grabie; best man, Tyson Hamilton Bond; the bride and groom, who proceeded to a lovely arbor of laurel and chrysanthemum, where the Rev. Charles Edmeston Craven met them and united them in matrimony in his usual impressive and beautiful service. The bride was gowned in a lovely white lawn down, with elegant lace, and carried white roses. The bridesmaid wore pink silk and carried pink roses. The ribbon girls wore very handsome gowns of brown taffeta silk. Immediately following the reception the company adjourned to a spacious tent, where a great feast of good things awaited them and was heartily discussed. An automobile conveyed the happy pair to Riverhead, where they took the mail train for an extended trip to Niagara Falls, Canada, etc. On their return they will set up their household gods at Laurel, where a cozy new house awaits them. The bride received an immense number of gifts from her host of friends, and if her new home is as happy as the one of her girlhood she ought to be one of the happiest of women. No one in our village has made home life happier for their children than our good, true friends, Mr. and Mrs. Grabie. Such weddings as this are indeed very happy, delightful, golden milestones in the journey of life.
Terrys, of East Moriches, Hold Golden Anniversary

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Chatman Davis Terry of East Moriches was celebrated Tuesday night by a reception to about 70 relatives and friends at the Cadillac Hotel, Centre Moriches. The couple, who are socially prominent there, were married in Laurel.

Nov. 22, 1892, by the Rev. Mr. Downs of Northville.

They have three children, W. Irving of Ridgewood, N. J.; Raymond E. of Washington and Mrs. Beatrice Field of Centre Moriches and two grandchildren, Miss Virginia Terry of Washington and Master G. Rensselaer Field of Centre Moriches.

For many years Mr. Terry conducted a chain of meat markets in east Moriches; Centre Moriches and Eastport but sold out about 25 years ago and retired from the business.

He was the first president of the East Moriches Hook & Ladder Company.

Many gifts have been received in honor of the occasion which is a prominent social event of the season in the section.

Guest List

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Terry, daughter Norma, Ridgewood, N. J.; N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Terry, daughter Virginia, Washington.

Mrs. Beatrice Field, son, G. Vanvlees, Centre Moriches.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. T. Terry, Hollis, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pottle, Centre Moriches.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Wells, Terry, Centre Moriches.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Talman, Poughkeepsie.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Smith, Copiague.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Young, Laurel, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Nye, West Hempstead.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. F. Fordham, West Hempstead.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Tuttle, Renwick.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rogers, Remsenburg.

Mrs. and Mrs. S. H. Kishimura, Roslyn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chapman, Eastport.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kirby.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Haddock.

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Benjamin.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Tuttle.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Raynor.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Raynor.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Towcey.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillette Benjamin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Terry.

Mrs. Sarah A. Brown, Miss Montefiore.

Terry, Miss Florence Terry and Miss Mary N. Bishop, all of East Moriches.

FIELD—TERRY

A pretty home wedding occurred on Saturday last when Miss Beatrice Terry, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Terry, and Paul Field, of Brooklyn, son of Mr. George Raynor, of Patchogue, were united in marriage. The bride was attired in white georgette, wearing a veil caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Miss Anna Havens, of Centre Moriches, acted as bridesmaid. She was dressed in pale blue georgette and carried white carnations. Walter Gordon, a cousin of the groom, acted as best man. The wedding party entered the parlor to the strains of the customary march rendered by Miss Evelyn Talman, of Highland, N. Y., and standing under a blue and white bell the couple were married by the Rev. Otto Kless, pastor of the Presbyterian church. About 55 witnessed the ceremony. Many useful and handsome presents were received by the bride, among which was $250 in money. After a bountiful repast the newlyweds took the afternoon train for the city where they will reside.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES
OBITUARY

MRS. EDITH WILCOX

Mrs. Edith Wilcox, aged 80 years, died suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Philip Tuttle of Mattituck, Saturday morning, after being partially paralyzed following a shock about three years ago.

Mrs. Wilcox leaves three sons, Carl and Leroy Wilcox of Speonk; and Charles Wilcox of Westhampton Beach; two daughters, Mrs. Philip Tuttle of Mattituck and Mrs. Frank Webber of Copake Falls; two brothers, Jesse and Charles Smith of Westhampton; and 15 grandchildren.

Funeral service was held at the Brockett Funeral home in Westhampton Beach, Tuesday afternoon, with the Rev. George D. Greer of the Westhampton Methodist church officiating, followed by interment in the Eastport cemetery.

Mrs. Wilcox was born in Sag Harbor and was the widow of Eugene O. Wilcox, who died in 1927. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox started a duck ranch in Speonk, one of the first in this vicinity.

Mrs. Wilcox was very active, spending her winters at Tarpon Springs, Fla., where she owned a home.

MRS. EVELYN MILLER

Mrs. Evelyn Miller, wife of William Miller, died at her home on Atlantic Avenue, East Moriches, Sunday evening, following a long illness, at the age of 76 years.

She leaves, besides her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Percy Baylis, and a granddaughter, Nancy Baylis of Sea Cliff.

Funeral service was held at the home at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with the Rev. Edward N. Maxwell of the Presbyterian church officiating, followed by interment in Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Carrie S. Robbins
Dies at Age of 71

Special to The Eagle

Babylon, Jan. 8—Mrs. Carrie S. Robbins, member of a distinguished old Long Island family and widow of Jeremiah Robbins, for many years a well-known real estate broker on the South Shore of Long Island, died yesterday afternoon at her home, 29 S. Carll Ave. Here. She was 71.

Mrs. Robbins, who had lived in Babylon for about 40 years, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Oakes of this village. She was a descendant of her mother's side of the Seaman family, which had extensive property holdings in the vicinity of Jones Beach. She was also a descendant of Edwin Higbe, said to have been the first member of that prominent family to come to this country.

She was a member of Sagetoff Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution of Bay Shore, and for a number of years she had been a member of the S. M. S., a charitable organization here. For many years she was an active member of the local Methodist Church.

A daughter, Mrs. Cornelia Hoensch, of Amityville, survives. The funeral service will be held at the home on Friday at 2 p.m.

Fire Wrecks
E. Moriches RR Station

An exciting and mysterious event of the week-end for the people of East Moriches was the burning down of the railroad station located at Pine Street and Station Road, around nine o'clock, Saturday night.

This building was of a different architecture than the other stations of this section, since it had been built by the subscriptions of the people of East Moriches around 38 years ago, and presented to the Railroad Company in exchange for the stopping of trains at East Moriches station.

Journey Served 32 Years

On the particular afternoon that the station was christened, all of the prominent residents gathered at the station to speak a word or two in the morning. Telephone and electric light service had been crippled by the severe storm of Friday and Monday night, but the station as well as other buildings and the grass to the southward were washed with rain.

Burned To Ground

Despite this and the efforts of the East Moriches Fire Company, aided by Eastport, the station burned to the ground.

To the north of the tracks is the Chapman Lumber yard, but the wind was north and blew large sparks to the southward. Only some twisted wires, charred beams and north side of plank platform which formerly stood two feet from the ground, all about the building remains. It is reported that an office will be opened in the freight building about 300 feet to the east of the former station.